

THE CIA RIFLING OF CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE'S FILES

Wash. Post, June 19, 1979, June 18, 1979

"The one thing that would have done us in (The House Assassinations Committee) would have been for those photos of JFK to be publicly released. We were never satisfied that someone else wasn't involved."

G. Robert Blakey, Chief Consul.

"CIA agent, liaison officer, Regis T. Blahut, opened a safe, pulled out a drawer, took a ring-binder notebook out of the drawer, ripped a plastic case out of the notebook and he took a picture out of the plastic case."

"Sources said Blakey seized upon the incident last year and used it as a leverage to get the CIA to cough up a number of documents it had been holding from the committee".
