Part II, DEATH OF POPE
JOHN PAUL I. MURDER?

SERIES OF ARTICLES BY ANDREW GREELEY, FROM ROME, L.A. TIMES. EXCELLENT!!!

Oct.1,1978

Oct.6,1978

Oct.15,1978

These articles explain the politics of the Vatican, the power of the Curia for political, economic decisions, and physical limitations upon how far the Pope can move, meet, speak, or even walk in his garden.

"What are the chances of a sudden death again, after the warning, when 20 conservatives didn't vote"?

"The coalition will have to find a cardinal who...has the transparent goodness that will reassure the uncertain and leaderless center!"

"If the next coalition falls apart, anything can happen. This time it many not be a religious experience for anyone."

Andrew Greeley, Roman Catholic priest.
Director of University of Chicago's
Center for the Study of American Pluralism.
Student of Vatican Affairs.

SPOTLIGHT, 10/23/78

"Spanish Catholics claim evidence John Paul was murdered".

LOS ANGELES TIMES, 10/6/78

"An amazingly large number of people are raising the possibility of poison in connection with Pope John Paul's death."

"A search is being made for his health record. Why no autopsy in cases of sudden death"?

LOS ANGELES TIMES, 10/10/78

"Evidence claimed for Pope death inquiry. We want to observe the legal niceties and work through the Vatican prosecutor to avoid a scandal."

NEW YORK NEWS, Pete Hamill

"The Plausible Melodrama of a Poisoned Pope".

"The CIA delivered $80,000 to Pope Pius XII in the 1950's to have him issue a pastoral message declaring it was a mortal sin to vote for Communists".

"Since it's birth in 1945, the Christian Democratic Party has been an ally of the Vatican."

WASHINGTON POST, 10/5/78

"Controversy continues over How the Pope Died".

United Press International, Oct.4,1978

"The day before he died he condemned the idea of unlimited property..they had to shut him up."
